YOUR GUIDE TO GOING OUT, STAYING IN,
AND GETTING AWAY

joy rider
The fast lane can't keep up with TINASHE—the 23-year-old R&B singer is kicking off fall with her new album, Joyride—whether she's on a tour bus or dodging L.A. traffic in the driver's seat
Photograph by BRIAN HIGBEE

DRIVER'S ED A joyride is driving around with no particular destination in mind. I do it all the time, usually by myself at night. I enjoy the solitude of it. It gives me time to think and be in my own space. ARE WE THERE YET? There's a lot to explore in Los Angeles. I like to drive to places that are visually stimulating—the beach, the hills, the canyons—where I get a lot of ideas. LICENSE TO DRIVE I got my license at 17; my dad taught me. When I drive with my mom, she's always nervous. I'm like, "Relax!" HOT WHEELS I just got a new car: Ferrari California, black with a red interior. I've actually wanted a Ferrari California since I was 16. OK—it was mostly about the look. CARPOOL KARAOKE "Everybody (Backstreet's Back)" by the Backstreet Boys. FAST AND FURIOUS I've probably hit 100 mph before, driving to Vegas. So yeah, I've gotten a speeding ticket. I didn't even try to talk my way out of it. I can't talk my way out of things if I'm guilty of something. I'm too honest! The officer was nice and said, "I think you were going faster than this, but I'll say you were going 80." FLASHING LIGHTS My driver's license photo is bomb. Every time I go to the DMV, I'm like, "Can we reuse that photo?" I was serving face. FOLLOW HER @Tinashe.
