220

Current mood: Checked in Current soundtrack: The The, "This Is the Day" What are your most defining characteristics? My indifference to accepting love and my total obsessive love for indifferent people Do you have any idols? Bobby Gillespie and Alan McGee What do you despise? Self-imposed cages What's your favorite recent memory? Driving cross country on Route 66 in my little black convertible. Visiting Elvis's grave. Having Leatherface paranoia in an abandoned Southern Baptist church at 3 a.m. Getting lost in a labyrinth in West Virginia and making it to New York just in time to bathe in confetti on New Year's Eve What would you attempt that you've never tried? Making money

BBA TAMARIN'S OWN

As much a harbor for artists as a hallowed destination for would-be megastars, Los Angeles today is all about fusion. No wonder the new generation of underground hybrids are calling it home—and causing quite a stir

PHOTOGRAPHY HEDI SLIMANE

Current mood: Furious. Current soundtrack: Ariel Pink's Swanboat, my on-and-off boyfriend. What are your most defining characteristics? I'm a horrible lover and I cheat. I make music but I'm late for parties. I don't believe in duality and I am a pathological liar. Sweetest and sour: How do you define style? A bare ass, stripped of personality. Feminine products. What do you desire the most? Liar. Describe what you're working on currently. New plays and new music. "Mark of the Hongo Human Street Trash," "Into the Demi-Diagonal Incinerating Coast of the Encephalitic Troll Child," "Bethlehem Diaphan Dreams Coast," hence substituted for "The Flatpiano of Homosexual Romance," "One Night Stains." Do you have any premonitions for the future? More mouse and cat cartoons.

CLOTHING (THROUGHOUT) SAINT LAURENT BY HEDI SLIMANE

Current mood: None Current soundtrack: Darkthrone "Under a Funeral Moon" Do you have any idols? Allison Wolf, Joan Jetz, Lesley Gore, Gangsta Boo What do you despise? Sexism, misogyny, homophobia, racism, windows that have been sealed shut What is your favorite thing about L.A.? Jupiter Jaxx from the band HEALTH What is your favorite recent memory? Waking up this morning and going back to sleep Describe what you're working on currently. I'm on tour for our third record. (JG)

T-SHIRT AND NECKLACE ALICE'S OWN

Current mood: Drunk. Soundtrack: Anthony Bonifazi's The Leagues. What are your most must-dance characteristics? I'm directing people to take advantage of me. I'm in charge of everything and my one day is about being a submissive pop angel. Who do you despise? I'd like to be funny here, but the traditional sexual discrimination. What is your favorite thing about LA? It's so beautiful. I started in 1984. One of my favorite memories because it has pruned obnoxious things like Jambon Jean-Claude and Chortels, which are strip clubs. One way to have enough money to shower the strippers with at least $60 bucks at a time, with the real deal money. What makes you proud? I really will say you are coming to a VEGANAGE, actually by actually and all my videos. My art is my life and it will always fit me with the greatest pain and pleasure.

Describe what you're working on currently. I'M NO ANGEL, my next album and short film. The project will speak the purity within in order to get closer to the darkness of us.
