Hollywood volume

"Making women look sexy" is one of Keough's hair mantras. In his three decades in the business, he has created cutting-edge styles for glossy magazines worldwide, as well as working with fashion brands such as BCBGMaxAzria and Tigerlily. He's been a creative consultant for John Frieda for 10 years and his A-list clientele includes the likes of Elle Macpherson and Toni Collette.

GET THE LOOK

"You have to start adding volume to the hair from the moment you wash it," says Keough of creating this luxe look. He suggests using a volumising shampoo and conditioner to start, followed by a volumising spray "spritzed into towel-dried hair from mid-lengths to the ends". Try John Frieda Luxurious Volume Fine to Full Blow-Out Spray ($17, 1800 468 318). A root lifter, such as John Frieda Luxurious Volume Root Booster Blow Dry Lotion ($16, 1800 468 318), will also give more body to the hair, says Keough, "especially if your hair is on the finer side". Using a large, round brush, blow-dry the hair fully then, with a 3.5cm curling iron, curl the hair in 7.5cm sections, "pinning each section with clips until the hair has cooled". Take the clips out and use a paddle brush to loosen up the curls. Finish with a light mist of hairspray to set the look.
