The image shows the cover of the May 2013 issue of Seventeen magazine. The cover features a smiling AnnaSophia Robb with blonde hair, wearing a bright yellow cardigan over a white one-piece swimsuit with a colorful floral pattern. She is also wearing a chunky necklace and multiple bracelets. The background is a solid pink color. Various headlines and promotional text are scattered across the cover, including 'THE FREEBIE ISSUE!', 'win! Clothes! Laptops! Makeup! & More!', 'The #1 Secret To Perfect Skin!', '250+ SWIMSUITS INSIDE!', 'Find The Best One For Your Body!', and 'WIN This Cute One-Piece Too'. A small white box in the top right corner mentions 'The Summer Jobs That Will Make You MAJOR $$$'. The bottom left corner includes the issue date, price, barcode, and the website 'seventeen.com'.

She may have stepped into an iconic role, but the star of The Carrie Diaries is a true original.

The golden rule AnnaSophia Robb swears by: When you make a major decision, never, ever look back! That can be tough when you have to pick between doing two really cool things. But AnnaSophia says that fully committing to one thing is the secret to having a totally awesome life.

Last year, AnnaSophia was a senior in high school in Denver, Colorado, when she was offered the starring part in The Carrie Diaries, the super-buzzed-about prequel to Sex and the City. Taking a major TV role seems like a no-brainer, but it was actually a difficult choice for AnnaSophia. She had been acting since she was little and shined in Tim Burton's Charlie and the Chocolate Factory and Soul Surfer. But AnnaSophia had taken a break from acting so she could

CLEAR SKIN

The best beauty tips can come from unlikely sources: "I got eczema on my arms, and my acupuncturist said to put vegetable shortening, like Crisco, on it. I tried it for a week and the eczema went away. Another time, I had a breakout, so my memaw applied a paste of crushed uncoated aspirin and water. Fifteen minutes later it had shrunk. Swear."

SHORT OF IT

Bright ideas, shorts that show off the season's neon trend and still keep you looking like a lady with vintage details like a scalloped hemline and a flattering flared cut. And, yes, you can wear shorts after sunset—in a menswear-inspired shirt with a tuxedo tie the gives your outfit an evening wear air. Quality touches such as jewel-like buttons and puff sleeves rescue a shirt from gypville—it's all yours! Shorts, J.Crew, $58; Top, Kara Spata-Kon, $295; Necklace, $118; and oversized bangles, $23 and $35; Scarf, Geometric bangles, Kenneth Jay Lane, $120; Hat, Louis, $48.

BEAUTY NOTE

Take a break from vampy lips: Smooth on Maybelline New York SuperStay 48 HD Lipstick in Ravishing Rouge, $5, for sunset, flirty kisses.

Pleats are back but with pumped-up PERSONALITY. Hot colors and tricked-out tucks let you be sweet and sexy.

KNOW WHEN TO HOLD 'EM

It's the little black dress, rethought for today. The contemporary makeover: Interesting fabrics and modern cuts—check out the geometric pleats peeking out from the folds. To ensure your $50's long-sleeved look for cuts that are simple (like the Honey Shuga here) and retro touches like pleats that have staying power. With all these elements, your dress is glam enough for nights out, comfy enough for weekend fun. OK, so you wouldn't wear this to wash your car, but it makes for a fun photo. Dress, $4,000; and cardigan, $2,245; Louis Vuitton; Glasses, Dior, $295; Earrings, Sonnet & Sonnet; $120; Watch, Swatch, $50; Bracelet, Anne Marie, $290; Shoes, Manolo Blahnik, $750.

ALL DOILY'D UP

Every girl should have a tunic in her closet. It's not only enough to hide trouble spots but not so loose that it needs pot o' sack. Done in lace—the season's favorite material—the classic cut is totally new. Today's modernist tunic is intricate, sometimes of fringing it with patterns or graphics, all at once or below. Better. Match it with bright or dark solids, which best show off the design. Top, $425, and pants, $125, by Ruch. Glasses, Norma Kamali, $230. Bracelet, LK Jovvay, $200. Bag, Marc Jacobs, $1,400. Photo, Ardenne Union, $30

BEAUTY NOTE

It's not just flash fashion-forward with hair. In: Nail Polish, $10, in Warwick Way.

ROOM TO BLOOM

Let yourself blossom by embracing the season's floral trend. But how to do it suitably without looking like a bouquet? Mix small and large prints—a double dose of busy or big is overkill. Gingham avoids looking old-fashioned or dated if it's worn when strewn with delicate petals. Shirt, Anne Klein, $120. Skirt, Marc Jacobs, $350 cute—for about five minutes," says Nina Dobrev, star of The CW smash The Vampire Diaries and this fall's The Perks of Being a Wallflower. Which tells you a lot about why we love this Bulgarian-born, Toronto-bred 23-year-old: She has a slammin' bod, true (she grew up doing gymnastics and dance), but she also speaks three languages. "I was always asking questions as a kid, and I still try to know more, do more and be better. My mind is constantly racing. I want to open a yoga studio, direct someday and be in an action film, like Angelina Jolie!" Clearly, she's driven, which has its consequences: "I have anxiety about things not getting done." To deal with stress, she turns to yoga, chocolate and time with her costar and boyfriend, Ian Somerhalder. (Her Mr. Right test: "He has to be a happy person. You'll laugh and enjoy life more.") She's got it figured out, so we've tapped her for the yoga move she swears changed her body, the best ways to stay inspired and the smartest shopping advice ever. —Erin Bried

"Exercising gives me endorphins and energy."

I do it four days a week. I Spin with Candice Accola and Claire Holt from the show. Running is my solo time; working my muscles outside in fresh air is therapeutic.

"Starving to be skinny isn't my thing. When I don't eat, it affects my mood! On-set, I fuel up with small meals and I'm always grabbing high-protein snacks, like almonds. Chai lattes with espresso also keep me going."

"The first person I remember thinking was beautiful was my mom. She never really wore much makeup, some Clinique powder and a bit of red lipstick. That concept of being natural has stuck with me and my sisters."

BEAUTY TIP "My skin is very sensitive—I get red really quickly—so I wear tinted SPF moisturizer sunscreen every day and I use rose hip oil. It's a lovely gentle oil to put on your face. It's noninflammatory, and it moisturizes as well. I also avoid eating anything too spicy."

NICK JONES & SOHO HOUSE
MOËT CHANDON & CHÂTEAU DE SARAN

Kelly & The City...

Blond, elegant and sooo sophisticated. Assuming that Kelly Rutherford was raised in one of the elegant Upper East Side families comes more than easy. What a coincidence that the producers of Gossip Girl selected this California girl for the role of the reserved, tradition-oriented businesswoman and mom in the popular TV series. GG caught up with the actress who made the move to her new neighborhood in Manhattan. Not far from where the celebrated grand seigneur of interior design Jacques Grange created his first hotel The Mark. Meet Nick Jones, the man behind the Soho Houses, and join us on a tour of the famous champagne palace Château de Saran.

THE ICONOCLAST
Seen here at Club 205 in Giles, the New York student and deejay, one-third of the MisShapes, gravitates toward the graphic. Details see in This Issue.
Photographed by Frederike Helwig.
Sittings Editor: Kathryn Neale.

my style's more black and white," says Leigh Lezark of the MisShapes, explaining why she painted her golden Tory ballet flats black to match her nails. The handbag of the downtown deejay princess—whom The New York Times dubbed "a femme fatale version of Ali MacGraw"—is black suede, by Moe, and shot with golden punk studs. "I like studs on everything," she says, "like the back of my Marc Jacobs shoes. But it's coming into the mainstream, so I'm going to have to find something new."

Always on that quest, New Jersey-born Lezark couldn't get out of her home state fast enough. Barely a week after she graduated from high school, the flashing-green-eyed beauty had holed up in New York City ("the only place I wanted to live") and secured a job as a fit model for Ben Sherman in the old Warhol Factory. Her East Village apartment is painted silver with black trim, and she named her miniature dachshund Edie.

"When I was young," says Lezard, 23, "I was obsessed with Breakfast at Tiffany's. That uptown girl who acts like a crazy lunatic—I just loved that!"

Lezark formed her deejay triumvirate the MisShapes, with friends Geordon Nicol and Greg Krelenstein, almost by accident. Now their Saturday nights at the club Don Hill's have attracted style meisters like Hedi Slimane and Sienna Miller, and Madonna and Yoko Ono have played alongside them. "It's not a retro party, it's about right now," says Lezard, who is working on a style book for MTV and Powerhouse Books that will be filled with portraits of Don Hill's denizens.

During Fashion Week, the MisShapes were often doing two parties a night and attending the shows by day. "Benjamin Cho is one of my all-time favorite designers," says Lezard, who is also "really into" Balenciaga, Giles, Gareth Pugh, Yves Saint Laurent, Marc Jacobs, Calvin Klein, and Obesity and Speed. Vivienne Westwood's pirate boots are her present obsession.

Her home state, she says, did give her a taste for "really good consignment shops. I'd go and shop with these old ladies for subtle vintage: amazing old Dior shirts and Saint Laurent men's blazers. I'd do my own tailoring, switching the buttons." Lezard also shops vintage at the New York City Opera and Housing Works thrift stores—and on Staten Island, "right off the ferry." For contemporary finds, she swears that Opening Ceremony, with its seasonal roundup of designers from a particular country, "is the best place to shop in New York, hands down. They have Topshop upstairs, which is the first place I stop in London."

For Lezard, fashion is "about taking risks but wearing what makes you comfortable—and sexy." □
