

Art Department

Matthew Williams

www.art-dept.com

Art Department

Matthew Williams

www.art-dept.com

Art Department

FOUR EXPOSURES ON FIFTH STREET

In 1911, the Buckley House was another masterpiece of the early 20th-century architectural movement. It was designed by the architect John Russell Pope, who was one of the leading architects of the time. The house was built for the Buckley family, and it was one of the most important houses of the early 20th century. It was a masterpiece of the early 20th-century architectural movement, and it was one of the most important houses of the early 20th century. It was a masterpiece of the early 20th-century architectural movement, and it was one of the most important houses of the early 20th century.

THE BUCKLEY HOUSE: WOMEN HOUSE IN THE CITY

Matthew Williams

www.art-dept.com