THAT'S A WRAP
 Hearty jobs are already finished when the heavy things throw major work. All that's left to do is back out, transfer, knock down blocks, and wrap up everything when the glass gets full. The article 'You guys have seen it all done' who are cleaning up and breaking down the set-not a bad reward at the end of a shoot.

"I love hearing 'It's a wrap!' 'The shoot' says, 'They really do say that. And those are some great words to hear.' But sometimes there are dishes that present greater challenges, like a crown roast which is expensive, so it's essential to shoot it in one go-or 'ice cream.' Although the recipe when there are huge temperature differences, like when you need to shoot the sundae in a hot set or a cold machine. It's all about doing too much or getting things, 'You just have to be ready to just keep doing the same thing over and over and over' she says."
