With a self-titled debut album earning critical raves, this country music "it girl" has converted legions of fans with her fresh interpretations and blues-drenched stylings. "Onstage I might dress sexy and offstage more understated, but like my lyrics my look is always genuine," Roberts explains. "My fans know who I am—I don't try to be someone I'm not."

Irina Dvorovenko
Ballerina

American Ballet Theater principal and a red-carpet regular, Dvorovenko is quite literally always on her toes. Before summer's end she'll perform in Swan Lake, Romeo and Juliet, Giselle and La Corneille. Off stage and on the run her look is graceful and chic. "Ballerinas are always on point when it comes to style," Dvorovenko laughs. "Even if I'm just running to the store with no time for makeup, I'll wear a stylish pair of frames and grab just the right bag."
