FATHER JOHN MISTY'S FUNNY BONE

WHEN FATHER JOHN MISTY released Pure Comedy in April, we heard the simultaneous knock of every music writer in America. At last, art of the Trump and the morning snatches of our town are presented as America! And Pure Comedy, the third record of former Fleet Fox lead musician Laurel Canyon

...and the things that people find really funny are usually deeply and to me. Not that things are the opposite of how they appear—but that they are more multifaceted than they appear, you know? Wow. I've already chased everyone away from this page.

That said, I think that a song should be a place where you can silence your critical mind—but it's not always funny. There's real pain in the world, and misery? And you should laugh. And a song—I use gospel music so that I can believe in God for ...three minutes. Because I like believing in God for three minutes, even though it doesn't fit with my practical, day-to-day life. So a song is not a think piece. It's not a blog post. It's a dose to a magical space as you can get.

And with this record, these just sound like normal songs to me? That may be hard for people to believe. But to me, listening back, these don't sound like political or topical—they just sound like nice songs. You can put "laughs incredibly" in brackets, because one thing that doesn't ...come across, in particular, is that I'm typically laughing after everything that I say. That part of me, that perceives my own absurdity, is lost? It just comes across in this boneyard way that can be pretty unimpeachable in the way something looks when it's past the parade. You know? Even the way that I just said the word "laugh." With a little wink, or a smirk. When it's in print, it looks like I have a lab coat on.

"You should put 'Tilman checks.'" And he really does.

ABOUT THESE CLOTHES

If you've never been quite brave enough to dabble in workwear, now's the time to get a little bit country all your favorite designers have created

...this stuff with your regular fit, but it's not quite so much as you see these pieces with your most now "a" well attitude.
