All About You
Your love life...your work life...your life life

Men Tell All
About Sex!

Who says guys don't talk? Three writers open up about getting turned on—and getting you off.

“The best sex I ever had was on Skype”
By Deryn Rothbart

I met Nikki in Sioux Falls, South Dakota—a mysterious, tattooed girl serving drinks at a smoky bar, reading in the corner during lulls in the action. I was in town only for the night, and I'm not one of those smooth guys who knows how to pick up a girl at a bar, especially the bartender, but we started talking. By the end of the evening we were making out by the pinball machine and heading back to her place. Nikki was sexy, smart, funny, and sweet. The problem? I lived 18 hours away, in Michigan. All the same, we pledged to find a way to make it work. Over the winter we visited. Continued on next page ▶
