HERITAGE MEETS INNOVATION™

THE FIRST IN A SERIES OF CONVERSATIONS BETWEEN VISIONARIES WHOSE VALUES SHAPE THE FUTURE OF OUR CULTURE.

Alice Waters
founded the farm-to-table dining movement in 1971 when she opened the doors of Chez Panisse in Berkeley.
Here, she talks with Carlo Mirarchi, who is pioneering the rooftop-to-table urban dining scene with his restaurant Roberta's in Brooklyn.

U.S. Trust is proud to present the Heritage Meets Innovation Conversation Series. At U.S. Trust, we connect our wide range of capabilities and insights to our clients' beliefs and goals, an approach that has been trusted by generations of families for over 200 years.

A photograph of two people, a man and a woman, sitting on wooden crates. The man is wearing a brown jacket and the woman is wearing a dark grey dress. They are both smiling and looking at each other. There are several potted plants and flowers around them, including a large green plant in a wooden crate on the right and a basket of purple flowers on the left. The background is a textured, light blue wall.
