The image is a magazine cover for Parade, dated Sunday, November 24, 2013. The background is a vibrant red. On the left, the word "Parade" is written in a large, white, serif font. Below it, in a smaller white font, is "SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 2013 | PARADE.COM". The central focus is a photograph of Kelly Clarkson. She is wearing a red, short-sleeved, lace-trimmed dress with a matching belt and red high-heeled shoes. She is smiling and holding a red ornament in her right hand, reaching towards a white Christmas tree. In her left hand, she holds a white and red striped ornament. The white Christmas tree is decorated with gold and white ornaments and snowflake decorations. At the base of the tree are several wrapped gifts in blue, red, and white paper. A red speech bubble with white text is positioned to the right of the tree. The entire cover is framed by a decorative white border with a repeating diamond pattern.
