LASHINGS OF Lashes

"I don't bother with false lashes during the day. I don't really like anything fake, I feel like I'm lying and it just seems unnatural," says Aloxa. While a full row of falsies is a no-no, "for events I will sometimes add a few little individual lashes just to intensify my eyes." For a natural look that still makes a great impact, we added two half lashes to the middle of her upper lashline. (Lash Wardrobe £16 eyeko.com). Contrast them with a flushy blush (Blush in Ashes Of Roses £7.49 Bourjois) and pretty baby-pink lips (Velvet Matte Lip Pencil in Bolero £17.50 narscosmetics.co.uk). ©
