PANTENE

A woman with long, straight, brown hair styled in a large ponytail is shown in profile, wearing a black turtleneck. She is holding a large, golden ribbon that loops around the base of her ponytail. In the foreground, there are two bottles of Pantene Pro-V hair care products: one labeled "PRO-V" and another labeled "VOLUME & BODY". The text "2X FULLER & STRONGER HAIR UPSIZE YOUR PONYTAIL" is prominently displayed over the woman's hair. The slogan "STRONG IS BEAUTIFUL" is at the bottom left. A small vertical text on the left side reads "© 2011 Pantene LLC. All rights reserved. Strength, support, shine, damage protection technology."/>

“I’M ACTUALLY REALLY GOOFY, BUT I GRAVITATE towards intense stories,” claims actress Danai Gurira. Her resume bears that out: Born in Iowa and raised in Zimbabwe, she realized her calling as a storyteller early on. Graduate studies at NYU yielded In the Company, an acclaimed off-Broadway play she created about two women diagnosed with HIV. Last year, she joined the cast of The Walking Dead as Michonne, whom she likens to female veterans she met in Liberia. “She’s an example of what women can become in dire circumstances. There’s no 911 or cops and balances, so she’s become her own army.” And most recently, she stars in Sundance favorite Mother of George.

Danai wears the Sophie Bootie in Black Haircalf $178.00
