NOWVILLE

SOUTHERN COAST
50

GQ

July

NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE, used to be just a city of ten-gallon hats and the Grand Ole Opry. Now it's the most electric spot in the South, thanks to a cast of transplanted designers, architects, chefs, and rock 'n' rollers. Here, twenty-five locals show you how to tear up Music City in threads worthy of this reborn southern scene

THE NO-BRO CARGO

Forget the hootie and the bloofish heritage. CARGO PANTS ARE BACK, BECAUSE DESIGNERS HAVE CUT THE BAGGING, SAGGING EXCESS. THE NEW ONES SHOULD FIT JUST LIKE YOUR JEANS: SLIM AND STRAIGHT. BEN WATTS

Designers are rethinking the placement of cargo pockets, also moving them to the front of the pants to keep them from the elbows.

Don't call the pockets full of gear. No need to promote the new, slimmer lines of these pants.

Designer underwear brand has called Eagle-Hood back on the big screen and back to Ben Watts in the new film "Something Borrowed".

The Incredibly Fly Bomber Jacket

— Run, don't walk, to your favorite style franchise and put down some cash for a black leather bomber jacket. This jacket has just the right hoar. It was pop-dazzled by fighter pilots during World War II and gives the army-Navy specification number, a.o. The 2011 version is all black (think the Indiana Jones brown) with just enough military details to keep the macho edge going. Wear it in all the ways hip head-nurse: 1. Color does here—and keep it on inside the club to drop a bomb on the competition. —J.W. Moore
