Start your child's life adventure early by simply throwing down a faux-leopard carpet and adding British Colonial-style beds draped in khaki and white. Add some oversized friends, and Out of Africa becomes out-of-this-world awesome.

THIS PAGE The unexpected surprise of blue, green, and brown, and the white polka dots, makes for a bedroom that could suit either a boy or a girl. The large space is maximized by smart floor-to-ceiling shelving.

RIGHT This room was designed for a sophisticated fifteen-year-old. While she wanted pink, it was kept from looking too cute with shots of fuchsia in bold patterns mixed with crisp navy. The Royère-inspired lighting, custom-painted raffia side tables, and grass cloth walls add to the "mature" aesthetic.
