Overview: For a young girl's bedroom, a bright, striped color scheme was selected. City Jenny's wood bed and George Nelson's chair of drawers are painted in bold colors. The "Olivia" side tables are by Konstantin Grcic, and the green table lamp is Billoway. The Federal Design rug pattern incorporates horseshoe riding motifs, a favorite activity of the girl. Above: We created a suite of spaces for a boy's bedroom, which includes a cozy sleeping nook upholstered in striped fabric. Hanging in the hallway is a ceramic pendant light by Roger Capron. The "Sireno" wardrobe is from Cappellini.

Left: I love this slat Iasy Susan built into the oak dining table by Hovel Van der Straeten. He also designed the brass ceiling light. The multi-arm dining chandelier is by Magnus Lassen, and the rug is by Pedra Design. Above: "Rainbow" scones by Kim Moberg are attached to my signature bookshelf, which was made by City Jewelry.
