BIFAMAN BE-100 HEADPHONES

Your days of cranking up the volume till the walls shake may be behind you, but with these cans you can rock out '90s style without disturbing the peace. At nearly 15 ounces, they are a bit hefty for mobile use, but for at-home listening you can't beat these ears. The planner magnetic driver creates unparalleled warmth and clarity, plus full but not heavy bass. Low power requirements also make them easy to drive, even if you must) with your iPod. $400, head-direct.com

69 TRAXXAS FORD MUSTANG M3RA FUNNY CAR

Yes—a radio-controlled car that goes in a straight line. Sound boring? Wait until you light up this beast's huge rear tires. The 1/10-scale dragster contains a wickedly powerful brushless motor and amazingly realistic burnout, staging, and racing modes. Shoot it up to 70 mph—if you can keep it on course. $200, traxxas.com
