E puntiamo sul colore. Per una volta non serve avere fortuna, ma bisogna avere buon gusto. Perché può essere complicato mettere assieme rosso, blu, giallo, verde con... Questa non è una lotteria: niente va lasciato al caso

STACK ATTACK

Boots with a stacked heel let you walk tall—but comfortably. From left: A foil-over, motorcycle-style boot boots (great with a skirt and tights or skinny jeans; a patchwork sly on menswear prints can also add zing to solid black tights) and a graphic black-and-white padlock boot gets even more playful when paired with socks. (If this look feels too young for you, opt for opaque black tights instead.)

Crew; $120; Bag, Fendi; $1,200; Tights, Falke; Center: Boots, Roger Vivier, $230; Coat, Chanel; von Furstenberg, $200; Dress, Black Flouze; by Brooks Brothers, $90; Bag, Miu Miu; Tights, Hosiery by Shary House; Right: Boots, Fratelli Rossetti, $750; Coat, Etro; $195; Skirt, Calvin; $240; Skirt, DKNY; $95; Socks, Falke

Step lively in this season's gorgeous boots! We've rounded up the latest and greatest, including runway-inspired ankle stiletto, classic knee-high styles, edgy wedges, and yes, shooties—along with tips on how to wear them all with flair.

CHELSEA LATELY

Orange accents update the classic bohemian Chelsea boot. It's the perfect weekend shoe, adding polish to jeans and skinny pants. (But don't wear these boots with leggings—your feet will look high.) A flat sole means you'll be able to run a day's errands with ease.

BERRY NICE

Nothing says fall like richly colored suede, and here are two new ways to wear it: as a wedge (left), which offers stability and comfort without sacrificing chic; and as a bootie with a metallic cage toe (right)—the best accent for the season's metallic clothing and accessories.

RED ALERT
The shibbole (a hybrid shoe-ankle bootie) is a cooler alternative to pumps. It looks fantastic with skirts, dresses, or pants, but be mindful of your hosiery situation. While black tights are fine with black shibboles, bare legs are best for colored versions.

ATTEN-SHUN!
Military green is an active-duty neutral. Pair it with darks and brights alike. The boot on the left blends fashion and function (the lug soles provide traction); the riding style on the right is extra comfy, with a foam footbed that contains Adidas shock-absorbing technology.

WALK THIS WAY
A stiletto-heeled boot will always be a wardrobe essential. Wear ankle styles with dark tights so you don't visually shorten the leg. Pair a tall boot with a skirt that hits at or below the knee—but if you have to wear a shorter skirt, opaque tights are a must.

Bennett, $690; Coat, Top Arch, $1,100; Sweater, H&M, $20; Tights, Redlight by Shelby Mason; Skirt on location at Ladurée, NYC.
