"Deep Throat is a disgusting film. It's not artistic, even though it was the first feature-length porn movie to be released in theaters. It does have a plot, which is funny. But the long scenes of people having sex were not interesting to me. I watched 20 minutes, and that was enough."

"The first movie I saw in a theater was Raiders of the Lost Ark. My dad picked us all up from school and took us. It was also the first time I was allowed to drink Coca-Cola. The movie terrified me: Everyone burned. But Harrison Ford was just so gorgeous. That and the Coca-Cola made up for my terror."

CLEAR SKIN

The best beauty tips can come from unlikely sources: "I get eczema on my arms, and my acupuncturist said to put vegetable shortening, like Crisco, on it. I tried it for a week and the eczema went away. Another time, I had a breakout, so my memaw applied a paste of crushed uncoated aspirin and water. Fifteen minutes later it had shrunk. Swear."

classic GETS COOL

Looking refined and hip has never been easier, thanks to timeless shapes updated with hot-now graphics and kicky colors. Actress Emmy Rossum shows how to make it all work.

Want to look office-friendly but not too tame? Invest in a shift dress embellished by a witty design, which signals you're on trend. (This cross-kicks-the-two-plikas—it does the marching for you. What on your own, wear a career shade on bottom; it's kind to your curves.) With a catch like classic and colors this traditional, you can feel free to choose a strong print. That's got our vocal dress, Mily, $275. Earrings, Sandy Hyan, $20. T-shirt in one bundle, Kati Space New York, $248.

A striped (or dotted or plaid) overall has an everlasting appeal, but its surprising color combos, such as salmon pink and black—It's instantly contemporary. Two clearly pearls for a hefty double machine, which lends whimsy to a pretty outfit. Sweater, $295, and dress, $350. Rebecca Taylor. Necklace, Kismet, Jay Leno, $75. Belt, Skinny by Jaisca Ello, $60. Fashion director, Ryan Metzner.

UNTIL last year, no one would have described Emmy Rossum as shameless. An archetypal beauty, yes. Rossum bounded into the spotlight in 2004 as the sweet-voiced Christine in the big-screen version of The Phantom of the Opera. Last winter, the actress, 25, shucked her refined reputation to play Fiona in Shameless, the nervy Showtime drama. It's no delicate role: She sweats, she seduces, she scores. (Her sex scenes are racy, even for the fearless cable network.) In short, the girl's got spunk, making her a natural to model this season's classic-with-a-twist fashions. "I had so much fun in these clothes—they're feminine with an edge." As for taking fashion risks, Rossum's all for it. "It's liberating to mix it up, pairing stripes with florals or wearing two brights together. It makes your style unique. And it's not like cutting your hair; you can always take the sweater off!" With these fun styles, though, who would want to?

GET IN LINES

Generous bands in vibrant colors swirl for the fall of heart, but, boy, do they add oomph to a suit. Just what you need for statement-making moments, such as toasting a new job. And don't worry: The horizontal stripes seldom A study from York University in England debunks the claim—they may even be the fabric that you're called. Coat, $85; Q and A, $35; Sporty by Gault by Gault, $110; Caden, $40; Ring, Kenneth Cole, $35.

GO WILD

Worn separately, a lush botanical T-shirt and a bold striped skirt each play up your vibrant personality. Couple them up and you're a vision. Note to risk takers: Make sure two striking pieces share similar tones (green and blue unify the pieces here) so the pairing doesn't look accidental. Top, $385, and skirt, $1,125, Stella McCarney. Necklace, Josselliani, $758; Crafts (from left), $1,245 and $335; Aurelie Biscornat; Shoes, Roger Vivier, $475.

SHORT OF IT

Bright ideas: shorts that show off the season's neon trend are still keeping you looking like a lady with vintage details like a scalloped hemline and a flatter, lined-out. And, yes, you can wear shorts after sunset—in a monochromatic slip-on shirt with a tuxedo cut the gloves you can still an evening repair kit. Quality touches such as pearl-like buttons and puff sleeves rescue a shirt from govtville—it's all yours! Shorts, J.Crew, $58; Top, Kate Spade New York, $295; Necklace, $118; and unlined bangles, $23 and $35; Scarf, Geometric bangles, Kenneth Jay Lane, $120; Belt, Louis, $48

BEAUTY NOTE

Take a break from vampy lips: Smooth on Maybelline New York SuperStay 48 HD Lipstick in Ravishing Rouge, $5, for a sweet, flirty kiss.

Pleats are back but with pumped-up PERSONALITY. Hot colors and tricked-out tucks let you be sweet and sexy.

KNOW WHEN TO FOLD 'EM

It's the little black dress, reimagined for today: The costume makeover: interesting fabric and modern color—check out the psychological peeking out from the folds. To ensure your 1950's long-sleeve look for cuts that are simple (like the Honey Shuga here) and retro touches like pleats that have staying power. With all these elements, your dress is glam enough for nights out, comfy enough for weekend fun. OK, so you wouldn't wear this to wash your car, but it makes for a fun photo. Dress, $4,000; and cardigan, $2,245; Louis Vuitton: Glasses, Dior, $295; Earrings, Sophie Rain Jewelry, $50; Watch, Swatch, $30; Bracelet, Artime Hours, $290; Shoes, Manolo Blahnik, $750

ALL DOLLY'D UP

Every girl should have a tunic in her fashion arsenal. It's easy enough to hire trouble spots but not so easy to find the perfect sack. Done in lace—the season's favorite material—the classic cut is totally new. Today's contemporary is intricate, so beware of fraying it with patterns or graphics, all but uniform or below. Better: Match it with bright or dark solids, which best show off the design. Top, $425, and pants, $215, Top by Burberry; Glasses, Norma Kamali, $230; Bracelet, L.K. Plunk, $200; Bag, Marc Jacobs, $1,495; Phone, Avirex Union, $30

BEAUTY NOTE

It's total beach flash: fashion-forward reds with black lips. Nail Polish, $10, in Warwick Way.

ROOM TO BLOOM

Let yourself blossom by embracing the season's floral trend. But how to do it subtly without looking like a bouquet? Mix small and large prints—a subtle case of baby or big is overkill. Gingham avoids looking old-fashioned or dated or too crisp when strewn with delicate petals. Shirt, Amk Boutique, $525; Skirt, Marc Jacobs, $550

"The first person I remember thinking was beautiful was my mom. She never really wore much makeup, some Clinique powder and a bit of red lipstick. That concept of being natural has stuck with me and my sisters."

BEAUTY TIP "My skin is very sensitive—I get red really quickly—so I wear tinted SPF moisturizer sunscreen every day and I use rose hip oil. It's a lovely gentle oil to put on your face. It's noninflammatory, and it moisturizes as well. I also avoid eating anything too spicy."

TREY SONGZ is on a winning streak. The Grammy-nominated 27-year-old drops his fifth album, Chapter V, next month, and if the hit "Heart Attack" is any sign, it's going to kill. Songz, born Tremaine Aldon Neverson, deserves it: The man gives a lot of love, which explains his more than 4.2 million Twitterites. His charity, AngelsWithHeartFoundation.org, works with his fan club, Trey's Angels, to do clothing drives. (A few admirers mobbed our shoot on Sunset Boulevard, on first page.) He also gets raves for his fashion sense. "Dressing sporty shows confidence, and nothing is sexier than confidence," Songz says. Score high on style tonight by following his playful, sexy lead.

MATCH POINT
The tennis dress: now an ace style for evening. Primary colors make it sophisticated, and the mini length looks great with flats or platforms. Dress, Lacoste, $350. Sunglasses, Balenciaga. Necklace, Kenneth Jay Lane, $175. Watch, Rolex
