TREY SONGZ is on a winning streak. The Grammy-nominated 27-year-old drops his fifth album, Chapter 1, next month, and if the hit "Heart Attack" is any sign, it's going to kill. Songz, born Tremaine Aldon Neverson, deserves it: The man gives a lot of love, which explains his more than 4.2 million Twitterites. His charity, AngelsWithHeartFoundation.org, works with his fan club, Trey's Angels, to do clothing drives. (A few admirers mobbed our shoot on Sunset Boulevard, on first page.) He also gets raves for his fashion sense. "Dressing sporty shows confidence, and nothing is sexier than confidence," Songz says. Score high on style tonight by following his playful, sexy lead.

MATCH POINT
The tennis dress one of the most popular items in primary colors made it our list. (Songz's green and white outfit is a great example.) The mini-length tennis dress is a great look for the fall. (Songz's blue and white outfit is a great example.)

killer knits

Want a winter look to die for? The New Moon crew puts the sexy in cozy dressing. Behold sultry vampires in smoldering styles.

Photographs by Anne Menke

It rains incessant and bone-chilling in Forks, Washington, the tiny town where The Twilight Saga: New Moon, the second installment in the highly successful series, is set. Luckily for its resident vampires played by Ashley Greene (top), Rachelle Lefevre (opposite page) and Kellan Lutz, bloodsuckers can now warm their icy hearts with snuggly sweaters and mini-twig layers. When SELF tapped the trio to reveal their inner mortals to our cameras, the stars were smitten with the styles. "In Florida, so few never give winter shopping," Greene said. "But looking through the racks, I was, like, 'I want this, I want this, I want that.' Peruse these pages, then sink your teeth into fall's new knits.

Today's easy to wear knits in a woman's wardrobe from your same old sweater and jeans. Layer a double over a dress or under a vest, or add a hat to a hoodie. The goal is to seem as if you threw it all on and it happens to look cool. JACKIE: Stone Island, $175. SCARF: A.P.C., $100. SHIRT: Blue State, $60. HAT: Nanette Lepore, $108.

Opposite: Knits have gone from staples to statements. Top: If you're always thinking, knit, usually, when you're in. That's probably because your practical hairnets and hairnets are much more fun. CARDIGAN: Gap, $60. SHIRT: J.Crew, $45. OUTFITTERS: S.A.S. HENLEY: A.S.U. by Allen Schwartz, $45. NECKTIE: Chon Lee, $200. ON TOP: L'Oréal, $45. HILF: $248. FASHION DIRECTOR: Eryn Metzner.

THE ICONOCLAST

Seen here at Club 205 in Glen, she has just dropped her second album, The McShapes, a collection of indie pop songs. She's also the author of the book McShapes, a collection of indie pop songs.

Leigh Lezark is a style's more black and white. Leigh Lezark is a style's more black and white.

Shapes, explaining why she pushed her golden Tory baret flats back to match her nails. The handbag of the downtown-deep princess—when The New York Times dubbed "a femme fatale version of All MacGraw"—is black suede, by Mc, and also with golden punk studs. "I like studs on everything," she says. "It's the back of my Marc Jacobs shoes. But it's coming into the mainstream, so I'm going to have to find something new."

Always on that quest, New Jersey-born Lezark couldn't get out of her home state fast enough. Barely a week after she graduated from high school, the flashing-green-eyed beauty had hopped up New York City ("the only place I wanted to live") and secured a job as a fit model for Ben Sherman in the old Warhol Factory. Her East Village apartment is painted over with black trim, and she named her miniature dash-dash Edie.

"When I was young," says Lezark, 25, "I was obsessed with Breakfast at Tiffany's. That spunky girl who acts like a crazy haniatic—I just loved that!"

Lezark formed her deep friendship with the McShapes, with friends Gordon Neol and Greg Kreslein, almost by accident. Now their Saturday nights at the club Don Hill's have attracted style maven like Holly Simsane and Sienna Miller, and Madonna and Yoko Ono have played alongside them. "It's not a retro party, it's about right now," says Lezark, who is working on a style book for MTV and Powerhouse Books that will be filled with portraits of Don Hill's denizens.

During Fashion Week, the McShapes were often doing two parties a night and attending the shows by day. "Benjamin Cho is one of my all-time favorite designers," says Lezark, who also "really into" Bakosaga, Giles, Gareth Pugh, Yves Saint Laurent, Marc Jacobs, Calvin Klein, and O'Neary and Speed. Vivienne Westwood's pirate boots are her present obsession.

Her home state, she says, did give her a taste for "really good consignment shops. I'd go and shop with these old ladies for subtle vintage: amazing old Dior shirts and Saint Laurent men's blazers. I'd do my own tailoring, switching the buttons." Lezark also shops vintage at the New York City Opera and Housing Works thrift stores—and on Staten Island, "right off the ferry." For contemporary finds, she swears that Opener's Ceremony, with its seasonal roundup of designers from a particular country, "is the best place to shop in New York, hands down. They have Topshop upstairs, which is the first place I shop in London."

For Lezark, fashion is "about taking risks but wearing what makes you comfortable—and sexy." ☺
